VERDICTS IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY OF RICHMOND.—The Circuit Court was occupied vesterday in the conclusion of the cause of E. C. Pleasants against the city, begun the preceding day. This was an action to recover $750, with interest from March, 1873, for rent for water which the city contracted to receive from Mr. Pleasants for the use of the gas-works. The city acknowledged its liability for two months' supply at the rate of $500 per annum, or $83.34, with interest, but denied the residue of the claim.
